Matters for Discussion

- 1. School to Prison Pipeline. Promise South Salt Lake Director, Kelli Meranda, gave the Council a brief presentation on the school to prison pipeline and what Promise South Salt Lake is doing to help stop this trend through afterschool programs in the City. The afterschool programs are a safe and supportive environment from the hours of three to six p.m. and sometimes later if needed. The afterschool programs are designed to decrease risk factors by teaching social emotional learning. She discussed the programs that Promise uses and how they work with the schools to make these programs a success.

There was some discussion how programs and parent outreach are working during the pandemic.

Council Member Pinkney asked how many South Salt Lake youth are arrested on school grounds.

Ms. Meranda said she doesn't have those numbers and may need to reach out to the school district for more information.

The meeting adjourned at 6:12 p.m.
