Representing District 4

Portia Mila was first elected as City Council Representative for District 4 in 2015, and is now serving her second term on the Council. Originally hailing from Draper, Portia moved to South Salt Lake over two decades ago, where she lives now with her husband and two daughters. Since 2013, Portia has worked for an insurance provider for credit unions, working with 28 credit unions across Utah, Arizona, Idaho, Montana and Wyoming.

Before this Portia was a branch manager of a local South Salt Lake credit union for many years, where she created lasting relationships with city employees, businesses, and residents.

Prior to her role in the Council, Portia served on the SSL Planning Commission, and on the Board for the SSL Chamber of Commerce. She was also inducted as an Honorary Colonel for the South Salt Lake Police Department. She spends her free time at U of U football games, local concerts, and traveling around the country.
